Teachers Mutual Bank/ATEA
Teacher Educator of the Year Award: 2016

The aim of the Teachers Mutual Bank/ATEA Teacher Educator of the Year Award is to encourage and recognise innovative teaching practices in teacher education at a university level. Nominations are accepted from scholars whose primary activity is teaching in undergraduate or postgraduate Education courses.

Written applications of no more than four pages in total (not including testimonial/s) should address the selection criteria listed below. The closing date for applications is 14 February 2016.

Selection Criteria
In no more than four pages (not including testimonial/s), applicants should:

• Demonstrate capacity to develop and incorporate learning and teaching innovation/s or initiative/s through, e.g., a signal innovation in a curriculum area; a novel and powerful assessment approach; or a cogent professional development initiative
• Provide a short case study (max. 500 words) outlining this/these learning and teaching innovation/s or initiative/s
• Provide evidence of impact of this/these learning and teaching innovation/s or initiative/s on student learning
• Include testimonial/s in support of the learning and teaching innovation/s or initiative/s

Applicants should include their name, title, institution, role and contact details in the application.

Conditions
• Applicants must be current financial members of ATEA.
• Applicants must be currently employed within an Australian university.
• Education teaching being evaluated must have taken place within an Australian university during 2014/2015.
• Late applications will not be accepted.
• The judges’ decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
• Judges reserve the right not to make an award.
Note: The successful applicant is expected to attend and present a paper on their innovation/s or initiative/s at the 2016 ATEA national conference.

Award
The 2016 Teachers Mutual Bank/ATEA Teacher Educator of the Year Award will receive:
- a framed certificate: Teachers Mutual Bank/ATEA Teacher Educator of the Year Award: 2016
- $3000

Submission
Applications and testimonial/s, in word or pdf, are to be forwarded by email attachment to:
Associate Professor Jeanne Allen: jeanne.allen@griffith.edu.au and Dr Jenene Burke: js.burke@federation.edu.au

Closing date for applications is 14 February 2016. You will receive a confirmation email upon receipt of your application.

Review process
Applications will be reviewed by a sub-committee comprised of members of the ATEA National Executive.

Further information
Please address any inquiries about this award to Associate Professor Jeanne Allen: jeanne.allen@griffith.edu.au or Dr Jenene Burke: js.burke@federation.edu.au